

Team-Building Packages @ Beanstalk Zip Lines

Through a series of experiential initiatives and games, our team will lead cohesive challenges that will provide opportunities to transform a group of individuals into a high-functioning team. Through fun and a sense of adventure, meeting common goals as a team has never been more fun!!

- Beanstalk Zip Lines now offers a packaged deal of two programs (Team-Building and the Beanstalk Climbing Tower) at an exclusive rate more affordable than any of our other activities!
- This hands-on experiential educational process teaches students how to analyze a problem, develop strategies and to work together with a team to accomplish the “impossible”.
- Hours of structured learning that will leave a lasting impression with your students at price that will WOW! your administrators. Team-Building packages available for as low as $11 per student (based on group size).
